OGUN MICHAEL

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Sternfield International School is the centre of quality education where great minds become youths of global relevance. We are a production factory with a divine mandate to raise young ones, that will stand shoulder to shoulder with anyone and still have their head up high. We pride ourselves on excellence and Godly Character. We take firm roots in the inviolable core values of discipline, quality, Character and excellence.

For years I have imparted knowledge to the younger generation. It is time to discover more revolutionary intellects and groom them to become world leaders. Our students can compete for global relevance with a smile on their faces. We are focused on the creative aspect of learning through a

Like Benjamin Franklin said, "An investment in knowledge pays the best interest", we understand the boundless benefits education brings, and the changes that come with it for change is the result of learning.

We have a standard of excellence and professional staff well-trained to increase creativity and bring out the best in every child. We think, we create, and we innovate. We dare to be different, and we defy everything that stands to call us ordinary. We change the world and the minds of the people in it. We spread positivity, self-awareness and black excellence.

Sternfield International School is the best school for your child. Welcome.

AKINBOSEDE OMOWUNMI

School Administrator

A very warm welcome to Sternfield International School. This is a school with a great vision and mission. As a school we continually work hard to build upon our strengths and to address our areas of development in what is an ever-changing educational climate.

At Sternfield International school we have high expectations of our children and set challenging targets for them. Every child is encouraged to reach their full potential and we recognize that every child is special and has their own contribution to make.

Our staff are dedicated, hardworking and experienced. We provide a very safe, calm, and caring atmosphere in our school and foster a dynamic system based on an enjoyment of learning within a conducive environment.

We offer both academic and extra-curricular activities to help with the total growth of our pupils. Extracurricular activities like, the music classes, swimming lessons, I. C.T based learning and so much more. At Sternfield international school we believe solely in practical-based learning and as such practical classes are attached to every subject taught in the class.

We have an aspiration for all our pupils that through their school journey they will fulfil their academic potentials and become very successful. In addition, we aim that our pupils possess high levels of excellence and Godly character so that they are well placed to survive and excel in the future, becoming active and productive members of the society. I do hope you will visit us to meet with other pupils and all stakeholders of education at our school.

CRECHE

PRIMARY

Our Crèche offers child support and developmental programs for babies and infants. We are dedicated to improving valuable social interactive skills at an early stage. We are particularly convenient for working parents who wish to continue working after child-bearing.

Our Preschool understands the importance of nurturing outstanding future leaders. That is why we adopt the Montessori style of teaching and learning to develop their minds. Through hands-on activities, cognitive skills are developed.

Our Primary school prides itself on practical learning and creative thinking. Our flair for academic excellence, discipline, and morals have continuously been upheld in the course of instilling 21st-century learning skills in primary school pupils using a British-Nigerian curriculum.
